

VILLAGE TECHNOLOGY

The Village Technology Wing of the Varnasrama Ministry will help oversee the restoration of traditional technologies & cottage industries concentrating in five localized activities:

1) Oil Ghani using “cold pressed” method, 2) Pottery using local clay, 3) Handloom for weaving cloth, 4) Mud Blocks for building homes and 5) Water Lifting Devices such as Mothe and others for agriculture and food production.

Manual occupations in the Vedic culture promote “soft-technology” which is more simple, natural, safer, less expensive, more in harmony with nature and man himself.

Today’s “hard technology” is complex, artificial, hazardous, more expensive, non-ecological and stressful to the worker.
